Here's what Cyclingnews North American editor Mark Zalewski had to say about the HSG Carbon:

"The initial ride was indeed everything we expected of a Serotta - smooth, smooth and more smoooooth.

"The HSG frame has a pleasantly beefy feel when pounding down on the pedals with good sprinting response and acceleration."

"Never once did we question the frame reliability when confidently hurtling through high speed corners."

"The resilient Serotta felt practically glued to the ground."
